

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – RUBRIC OVERVIEW

In the theater, we tell stories.

The Spotlight Awards adjudicators will review the storytelling abilities put to work in each production. We are looking for an authentic tale well told, by your production team, ensemble, and individual performers.

We want to see how well you use the elements of theater to tell the story you have chosen:

- ✓ How well does your company understand the story they are telling? How clearly do they relate that story and its themes to the audience?
- ✓ How passionately do your actors embody their characters and express their journey through this story?
- ✓ How do your actors use performance skills of musical theater (singing, dancing, and acting) to enhance the story?
- ✓ How collaborative was your company in presenting a unified concept for the audience to engage with?
- ✓ How did you showcase the unique talents and resources of your school and cast to advance the story and concept you created?
- ✓ How creatively did your company transfer the story from page to the stage?
- ✓ How does your storytelling create a memorable experience, creating emotion and change in your audience?

Rubric Scoring

Each rubric is comprised of elements to be rated on a 1-10 rating scale and includes detailed descriptions of each scoring range. An overarching look at what we are looking for in each scoring range is below.

DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Presented the story practically, so that the events logically transpired but without impact to the characters. At times the effort to improve skills supersedes the story.</li><li>All technical elements served the basic requirements outlined in the script, but there is no evidence of collaboration with other areas to present a unified concept.</li><li>The musical selection was not appropriate, included harmful content or stereotypes, or did not showcase the school/cast talents and resources and produced few engaging moments.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Created a layered story with clear, evolving characters through a practical approach with moments of creativity evident.</li><li>An attempt was made to present a unified concept with input from all technical and performance components.</li><li>The musical selection rarely showcased the school/cast's diverse talents and resources, producing some interesting and engaging moments with some obvious missed opportunities.</li></ul>
SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Strong storytelling with solid, believable characters and a creative approach.</li><li>A clear vision of the concept for the production was carried out with some evidence of creative collaborations from technical and performance areas.</li><li>The musical selection was appropriate and showcased some of the diverse talents of the school's performers and technicians, producing mostly strong elements of musical theater.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Masterful storytelling with authentic, emotion-driven characters and a meaningful, memorable, and unique approach.</li><li>A clear, focused vision of the concept for the production was fully integrated with creative collaboration from each technical and performance area to ensure design consistency and advance nuanced themes.</li><li>The musical selection was appropriate and showcased the diverse talents of the school's performers and technicians, producing elements of quality musical theater.</li></ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING VOCALS RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
STORYTELLING AND INTERPRETATION Vocal interpretation is essential to storytelling within a musical, including, but not limited to, dynamics, intonation, tone and texture.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Followed music direction but has yet to add personal interpretation</li> <li>Performance shared a general idea of lyrics</li> <li>Basic phrasing variances were introduced to add meaning to the content of the songs</li> <li>Singers rarely made the connection between technique and interpretation that brings the song an undeniably unique quality</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Basic dynamics – a compelling use of volume and pacing – were also used to amplify or place focus on special moments in the story</li> <li>Performers are beginning to add personal interpretation through phrasing at a competent level</li> <li>Tone is accurate, but without texture</li> <li>Attempted to match the appropriate style with the lyric</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Dynamics were varied to convey emotional content and give a sense of a song as a unique way to tell a story</li> <li>Phrasing heightened the development of character</li> <li>Discovered a personal style of interpretation in line with the character's life choices</li> <li>Integrated the style of the song with the lyric</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The interpretation of the story was intrinsically enhanced by vibrant musical expression – tempo was dynamic, cue pick-ups were expert, and phrasing gave new meaning to characters</li> <li>Performers' musicianship demonstrated a complete understanding of what they were singing about and how it connected to their characters' development</li> <li>The music inspired emotional content from singers to elevate both the story and add depth to the characters</li> <li>Made the connection between technique and interpretation that integrally weaves songs into the story</li> </ul>
EXECUTION Performance vocals present an accurate demonstration of musical technique mixed with emotions and understanding.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Musical cues were often missed</li> <li>Singers exhibited skills in basic diction, rhythm and pitch, are comfortable with simple melodies and rhythms, and sought to stay in tune</li> <li>Still needs assistance with precise attack on individual words</li> <li>The cast rarely delivered songs through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation or projection</li> <li>Actors rarely sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing or dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Musical cues were sometimes missed</li> <li>Lead voices were usually in the foreground when appropriate</li> <li>Lyrics were intelligible and sounds were rarely sharp or flat</li> <li>Cast could navigate simple or more demanding rhythms with little trouble and was comfortable with basic harmonies</li> <li>Cast strove to meet the more difficult challenges of melody and rhythm and was mostly in tune</li> <li>Actors often sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Musical cues were rarely missed</li> <li>Transition from leading voices to chorus were seamless and all voices blended to produce a rich, pleasing sound</li> <li>Cast reliably executed crisp diction, demanding rhythms and accurate pitch requirements</li> <li>Singers were adept at producing simple and complex harmonies and rhythms, and were consistently in tune</li> <li>Singers were familiar enough with the music to confidently attack entrances and cut-offs</li> <li>Actors sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Musical cues were always picked up from the stage</li> <li>A full satisfying sound was achieved by deftly balancing each of the elements</li> <li>The music resonated, filled the room and uplifted the story</li> <li>The accuracy of the music as written was so effortlessly accomplished the content and message of each song was clear</li> <li>Displayed precise accuracy with simple and complex melodies and rhythms, and was unerringly in tune</li> <li>Actors always sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING ORCHESTRA RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
MOOD, STYLE AND STORYTELLING The orchestra creates the mood, supports the performers, and keeps the show moving forward.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Orchestra showed a fundamental grasp of melodic and rhythmic understanding and accuracy</li> <li>The music rarely enhanced the mood and atmosphere of the play.</li> <li>Instruments used for songs did not create the right sound or mood needed</li> <li>Performed with little or no creative expression, nuance, artistic subtleties or realization of the composer's aesthetic intent</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Melodic and rhythmic accuracy was achieved most of the time</li> <li>Orchestra made an effort to produce the appropriate musical style, which enhanced the mood and atmosphere of the play</li> <li>Basic dynamics – a compelling use of volume and pacing – were also used to amplify or place focus on special moments in the story</li> <li>Performed with some creative expression, nuance, artistic subtleties or realization of the composer's aesthetic intent</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Melodic and rhythmic accuracy were crisp</li> <li>Orchestra successfully incorporates the musical style, which enhanced the mood and atmosphere of the play</li> <li>Dynamics were varied to convey emotional content and give a sense of a song as a unique way to tell a story</li> <li>Performed with creative expression, nuance, artistic subtleties and clear realization of the composer's aesthetic intent</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Beyond accuracy and adherence to the musical style, the orchestra found a groove that gave the music wings</li> <li>The music inspired emotional content from singers to elevate both the story and add depth to the characters</li> <li>The interpretation of the story was intrinsically enhanced by vibrant musical expression – tempo was dynamic, cue pick-ups were expert, and phrasing gave new meaning to characters</li> <li>Performed with creative expression, nuance, artistic subtleties and clear realization of the composer's aesthetic intent</li> </ul>
EXECUTION How well the orchestra balances and blends to perform without overpowering the cast and be flexible enough to cover any mistakes that may happen on stage.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Music and singers could usually both be heard but further effort could be made to create balance</li> <li>Orchestra demonstrated a basic understanding of the importance of supporting stage performers without overpowering them</li> <li>Instruments were in tune with a few exceptions</li> <li>The synchronicity between the music, acting and dance elements were rarely developed</li> <li>Overall orchestra sound is unbalanced and/or distracts from stage performers</li> <li>Players seem unfamiliar or uncomfortable with the score</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Orchestra endeavored to support rather than overpower the singers, and was generally successful in pulling back to support performers and producing a fuller sound when appropriate</li> <li>Instruments were mostly in tune within sections and across the orchestra</li> <li>Musicians were familiar with the music to confidently meet cues</li> <li>The synchronicity between the music, acting and dance elements was sometimes developed</li> <li>Overall, orchestra sound is balanced and does not overpower stage performers</li> <li>Players demonstrate a basic knowledge of the score</li> <li>Sometimes employed appropriate dynamics and execute clean entrances</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Orchestra adapted to support each singer at their ability level, supporting both mature and budding voices</li> <li>Underscoring was at an appropriate and dynamic level</li> <li>Orchestra adjusted to small changes due to mistakes on stage</li> <li>As well as being in tune, the instruments played with a clear tone and blended well together</li> <li>The synchronicity between the music, acting and dance elements were often developed</li> <li>Orchestra provides complimentary accompaniment to stage performers and sections do not overpower each other</li> <li>Score is performed well with minimal wrong notes, appropriate dynamics and clean entrances and cut offs</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The music resonated, filled the room and uplifted the story</li> <li>Orchestra adjusted to fit abilities of each performer while maintaining a full, varied sound</li> <li>The accuracy of the music as written was so effortlessly accomplished, the content and message of each song was clear</li> <li>Orchestra operated as a cohesive group producing a sound that was both rich and unified</li> <li>Alert to changes during the performance without exception</li> <li>The synchronicity between the music, acting and dance elements was always developed, creating a complete balance between pit and stage</li> <li>Score is performed without mistakes</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING ENSEMBLE RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
STORYTELLING AND INTERPRETATION Overall contributions of the ensemble to the story and how the ensemble is used to enhance the world of the play through cohesive performance and relationships.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Ensemble rarely supported the story or fit into the world of the play with appropriate choices that contribute to telling the story</li> <li>Ensemble blocking rarely showed discipline or interaction with other characters</li> <li>Relationships to other characters are rarely evident</li> <li>The ensemble isn't used to add to the story of the play</li> <li>Performers are rarely engaged and rarely demonstrate any understanding of the story's thematic structure</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Ensemble sometimes supported the story and fit into the world of the play with appropriate choices that contribute to telling the story</li> <li>Ensemble blocking sometimes showed discipline and interaction with other characters</li> <li>Relationships to other characters are sometimes evident</li> <li>The ensemble sometimes adds to the story of the play, supporting the leading characters, creating strong visual pictures, setting the tone and time period, and creating the environment</li> <li>Some performers are engaged, invest energy and demonstrate a universal understanding of the story's thematic structure</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Ensemble often supported the story and fit into the world of the play with appropriate choices that contribute to telling the story</li> <li>Ensemble blocking often showed discipline and interaction with other characters</li> <li>Relationships to other characters are often evident</li> <li>The ensemble often adds to the story of the play, supporting the leading characters, creating strong visual pictures, setting the tone and time period, and creating the environment</li> <li>Most performers are equally engaged, invest equal energy and demonstrate a universal understanding of the story's thematic structure</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Ensemble always supported the story and fit into the world of the play with appropriate choices that contribute to telling the story</li> <li>Ensemble blocking always showed discipline and interaction with other characters</li> <li>Relationships to other characters are always evident</li> <li>The ensemble strongly adds to the story of the play, supporting the leading characters, creating strong visual pictures, setting the tone and time period, and creating the environment</li> <li>All performers are equally engaged, invest equal energy and demonstrate a universal understanding of the story's thematic structure</li> </ul>
EXECUTION Ensemble members should be a cohesive group and used creatively to drive the story while actively engaging each individual character in the performance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Actors rarely listened to each other or reacted accordingly</li> <li>Ensemble rarely sings with accuracy, diction, volume or precision</li> <li>Ensemble rarely displayed stage presence, energy, poise or ease</li> <li>Ensemble members rarely commit to their character or stay immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>Actors often break focus</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Actors sometimes listened to each other and reacted accordingly</li> <li>Ensemble sometimes sings with accuracy, diction, volume and precision</li> <li>Ensemble sometimes displayed stage presence, energy, poise and ease</li> <li>Some evidence that the ensemble members commit to their character and stay immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>Actors sometimes break focus, mainly due to missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Actors often demonstrated effective group dynamics and active focus, concentration and awareness, listening to each other and reacting accordingly</li> <li>Ensemble usually sings with accuracy, diction, volume and precision</li> <li>Ensemble displayed stage presence, energy, poise and ease</li> <li>Most ensemble members commit to their character and stay immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>Actors rarely break focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Actors demonstrated effective group dynamics and active focus, concentration and awareness, listening to each other and reacting accordingly</li> <li>Ensemble always sings as one voice with accuracy, diction, volume and precision</li> <li>Ensemble displayed stage presence, energy, poise and ease</li> <li>Ensemble strongly commits to their character and stays immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>Actors never break focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING COSTUME DESIGN RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
DESIGN ELEMENTS Elements of design and artistry combine to create the world of the play. Costumes should represent time and place of the story told while designating character status, personality and relationships.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Color was used to distinguish between characters but rarely represented the ideas of the play</li> <li>Costumes SUGGESTED the world of the play, including time and place</li> <li>Design provided a basic look for everyone, with small additions made to allow for needs of different scenes</li> <li>Costumes are copied or completely borrowed from previous or other productions</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Color palette of costumes coordinated with the other design elements in the show, sometimes representing the ideas of the play</li> <li>Costumes DEFINED the world of the play, including time and place, enhancing theme and mood</li> <li>An effort was made to provide different costumes to signify a new day or change of character</li> <li>Costumes are mostly original design, not directly copied from previous or other productions</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Designers clearly collaborated to make a unified visual concept and color palette, often representing the ideas of the play and demonstrating a meaningful, unified production concept</li> <li>Costumes ACCURATELY DEFINE the world of the play, including historical elements and proper wearing of items, as well as costume flourishes (piping, gloves, fringe, hats, etc.) to enhance the visual picture and create dramatic environments</li> <li>In addition to providing a variety of looks, costume changes did not delay the show</li> <li>Costumes are mostly original design, not directly copied from previous or other productions</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Designers clearly collaborated to make a unified visual concept and color palette</li> <li>Costumes coordinate with design concept and the show interpretation; advanced use of color enhances theme and mood of scenes</li> <li>Costumes ACCURATELY DEFINE the world of the play, including historical and imaginary concepts, but also reflecting the personalities of the characters and enhancing the theme, mood and dramatic environments</li> <li>The variety of costumes and well-organized transitions helped the dramatic build of the story</li> <li>Costumes are all original design, not copied from previous or other productions</li> </ul>
EXECUTION AND FUNCTIONALITY Includes actual functionality and execution of the costume design within the play. Costumes should be finished, well-fitting and allow freedom of movement.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Costumes were mostly complete, with only a few missing pieces (belts, appropriate footwear, etc.)</li> <li>Costumes rarely fit appropriately, and the actors were rarely able to move well in their costumes</li> <li>Cast is clothed in pieces without coordination in color, fabric, style, or time period</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cast was costumed with a finished look (hems complete, appropriately accessorized)</li> <li>Costumes were mostly appropriate for the actors, and the fit usually allowed for movement, with sometimes hindered movement</li> <li>Costumes appear clean and pressed / or accurately prepped for the show setting</li> <li>There is some coordination in color, fabric, style, and time period</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>In addition to being finished, costumes were generously accessorized with details and trim and tailored to fit individual performers</li> <li>Costumes were tailored to individual performers and were little hindrance to movement</li> <li>Look of costumes remained intact throughout the show (shirt tucked in, hats remained on, seams held, etc.)</li> <li>Costumes are coordinated in color, fabric, style, and time period</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>In addition to the skilled level of functionality, the costumes enhanced the elements of the production and added to characterization and the story as a whole</li> <li>Costumes were tailored to fit and flatter the individual performers, while allowing total freedom of movement for all performers</li> <li>Costumes are coordinated in color, fabric, style, and time period, as well as with all other design elements</li> <li>Look of costumes remained intact throughout the show</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING HAIR AND MAKEUP DESIGN RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
DESIGN ELEMENTS AND INTERPRETATION Includes elements of design and artistry and how they combine to create the world of the play with a cohesive, meaningful design that is appropriate for the play.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Hair and Makeup Design SUGGESTED the world of the play, including time and place</li> <li>• The design rarely created a cohesive, meaningful design concept appropriate for the play</li> <li>• The design elements rarely worked to establish character, time, location, or enhance the mood of the piece</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Hair and Makeup Design DEFINED the world of the play, including time and place</li> <li>• The design suggested a cohesive, meaningful design concept appropriate for the play</li> <li>• The design elements sometimes worked to establish character, time, location, and enhance the mood of the piece</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Hair and Makeup Design ACCURATELY DEFINED the world of the play to enhance the visual picture</li> <li>• The design almost always created a cohesive, meaningful design concept appropriate for the play</li> <li>• The design elements almost always worked to establish character, time, location, and enhance the mood of the piece</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Hair and Makeup Design not only ACCURATELY DEFINED the world of the play to enhance the visual picture but also reflected the personalities of the characters</li> <li>• The design perfectly created a cohesive, meaningful design concept appropriate for the play</li> <li>• The design elements perfectly worked to establish character, time, location, and enhance the mood of the piece</li> </ul>
EXECUTION AND FUNCTIONALITY How well is the design for Hair and Makeup executed, including attention to detail, blending, and appropriate styling.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Hair and Makeup seemed mostly complete, with basic blending and styling</li> <li>• Hair and/or Wigs have a messy look to the styling and/or are styled in a way to block faces of actors</li> <li>• Hair and Makeup application was all basic, with no adaptation for character traits such as age, gender, or social status</li> <li>• Any special effects needed were poorly executed, or impeded actor voices and overall performance needs</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The majority of the cast had a finished look, with neatly styled hair and/or wigs and well-blended makeup</li> <li>• Hair and/or Wigs allowed for freedom of movement throughout scene work and dances and the overall Hair and Makeup look remained intact throughout the show</li> <li>• An attempt was made for Hair and Makeup application to suggest character traits such as age, gender, and social status, but the execution was not always accurate</li> <li>• Any special effects needed were acceptably executed, but sometimes impeded actor voices or overall performance needs</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Cast had a finished look, with neatly styled hair and/or wigs and well-blended makeup</li> <li>• Hair and/or Wigs allowed for freedom of movement throughout scene work and dances and the overall Hair and Makeup look remained intact throughout the show</li> <li>• Hair and Makeup application effectively defined character traits such as age, gender, and social status</li> <li>• Any special effects needed were well-executed and rarely impeded actor voices or overall performance needs</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Cast had a finished look, with neatly styled hair and/or wigs and well-blended makeup</li> <li>• In addition to the skilled level of functionality, the Hair and Makeup designs enhanced the elements of the production and added to characterization and the story as a whole</li> <li>• Hair and Makeup application effectively defined character traits such as age, gender, and social status</li> <li>• Any special effects needed were well-executed and did not impede actor voices or overall performance needs</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING LIGHTING DESIGN RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
DESIGN ELEMENTS AND INTERPRETATION Includes elements of design and artistry and how they combine to establish the setting, focus the audience and create the overall world of the play.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lighting was used to help establish basic time of day with little to no use of color, patterns, gobos, and texture</li> <li>Lights were more to illuminate the stage than to illuminate the story</li> <li>Lighting was provided in an up and down manner, with no additional lighting cues or design</li> <li>Lighting rarely represented the ideas of the play or demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The intensity of the light changed if the scenes were indoors or outdoors to further the look; Some use of color, patterns, gobos, and texture</li> <li>Lighting sometimes represented the ideas of the play and demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> <li>Lighting was sometimes appropriate and applied the functions of lighting to represent time and place, establish character, enhance theme and mood and create dramatic environments</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>In addition to communicating time of day and environment, the lighting accurately underscored the mood of the scene</li> <li>Specials and special effects were added to highlight dramatic intensity and otherwise contribute to the storytelling</li> <li>Lighting often represented the ideas of the play and demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> <li>Lighting was often appropriate and applied the functions of lighting to represent time and place, establish character, enhance theme and mood and create dramatic environments</li> <li>Noticeable attempt at creative collaboration among designers and directors</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lighting integrated into the setting as to be an extension of it and significantly contributed to the show's theme and story</li> <li>With lighting, the designer subliminally directed the audience's attention to the important action, set a mood and moved the story forward seamlessly and cohesively</li> <li>Lighting was always appropriate and applied the functions of lighting to represent time and place, establish character, enhance theme and mood and create dramatic environments</li> <li>Designers clearly collaborated to make a unified visual concept and color palette, and the lighting perfectly demonstrated this</li> </ul>
EXECUTION AND FUNCTIONALITY Includes actual functionality and technical execution of the lighting during the performance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Set and/or performers were often not visible with some obvious shadowy places</li> <li>Practical light sources on stage (lamps, fires, sconces), if used, rarely operated successfully, with obvious timing and intensity issues</li> <li>Lighting cues and blackouts were often timed poorly and/or executed with incorrect pacing for the moment</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Stage and performers were well lit and clearly seen with a uniform wash</li> <li>Minimal spill onto non-essential spaces (proscenium, curtains, house)</li> <li>Practical light sources on stage (lamps, fires, sconces), if used, sometimes operated successfully, with some timing and intensity issues</li> <li>Light cues were built with sensitivity to timing (longer fades on dramatic moments, etc.) and minimal delays</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lights illuminated clearly defined playing spaces with no spill, and entrances and exits highlighted</li> <li>Practical light sources on stage (lamps, fires, sconces), if used, operated successfully and at the right intensity</li> <li>All cues were well timed and included crossfades, light changes within songs to intensify mood or key changes, and other subtle elements</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The functionality itself was invisible and fully supported the world being created</li> <li>Practical light sources on stage (lamps, fires, sconces), if used, operated successfully and at the right intensity</li> <li>Light cues were built and executed to creatively move the story along at a pace reflective of the general tempo of the show</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING SET DESIGN RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
DESIGN ELEMENTS Includes elements of design and artistry and how they combine to create the mood, setting and overall world of the play.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An effort was made to establish the story in a consistent time and place whether real or imaginary</li> <li>Set surfaced were painted, but could use strengthening in the connection between storytelling and the set design; Overall lack of visual interest</li> <li>Set design rarely represented the ideas of the play or demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The set accurately established the world of the play, including time and place, and the world was accurately represented in all surfaces (backdrops, wallpaper, walls, architectural elements, etc.)</li> <li>Set surfaces were painted with textures and colors in harmony with the show's entire palette, and basic levels were used</li> <li>Set design sometimes represented the ideas of the play or demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Designers clearly collaborated to make a unified visual concept and color palette</li> <li>In addition to appropriate colors and textures, details such as trim and decorative painting were used to further enhance the picture and provide a mood, as well as the use of levels to create visual interest</li> <li>Set dressings (furniture and props) were historically accurate and echoed the design concept</li> <li>Set design often represented the ideas of the play or demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Designers clearly collaborated to make a unified visual concept and color palette</li> <li>In every corner of the set, there was visual interest and aesthetically pleasing balance and the use of levels</li> <li>Scenery contributed to and helped define themes within the story, perfectly represented the ideas of the play &amp; demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> <li>The design boldly supported the director's concept by including historical elements required and reflecting the personality of those who inhabited the environment</li> </ul>
EXECUTION AND FUNCTIONALITY An outstanding set effectively and safely uses the available space, while maintaining functionality and artistry.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Shifts from scene to scene were accomplished but slowed the forward motion of the story and/or were distracting</li> <li>Sets and scenery appear unstable or unsecured</li> <li>Performers are often difficult to hear or see</li> <li>Stage crew rarely performed cues and technical responsibilities smoothly according to established theatrical practice and standards of safety</li> <li>Props are rarely used to give detail to the world of the play OR are used but are historically inaccurate or do not keep with the story and/or color palette of the play</li> <li>Crew was not dressed in a way to maintain the audience focus to the story, and created some distraction</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Smooth and brief transitions were made between scenes with minimum visible distractions</li> <li>The scenery, furniture and other set pieces were practical, sturdy, and seemed safely rigged</li> <li>The set gave the performers adequate playing space and levels to vary the picture</li> <li>Performers are audible and clearly seen.</li> <li>Cues were sometimes called and implemented appropriately</li> <li>Props are used to give detail to the world of the play and are usually historically accurate and keep with the story and/or color palette of the play</li> <li>Crew was not dressed in a way to maintain the audience focus to the story, and created some distraction</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Transitions were smooth, well-organized, nicely choreographed, in line with the pacing of scene work, and did not stop the action of the show</li> <li>In addition to complete functionality, the set was proportional to the space and did not impede natural movement</li> <li>Limited to no distortion due to scenery, each performer is clearly visible and audible</li> <li>Cues were often called and implemented smoothly</li> <li>Crew mostly wore all black or costumes to maintain the audience focus</li> <li>Props are effectively used to give detail to the world of the play, are historically accurate, and keep with the story and/or color palette of the play</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Scene shifts were organic – integrated into the overall look and feel of the show, and helped to tell the story without stopping the action of the play</li> <li>Above and beyond complete functionality and clear sightlines, the designer transformed the space by creating multiple choices for staging along with dynamic entrances and exits</li> <li>All scene transitions were smooth, quiet, brief, organized, with no missed cues, and did not distract from the show</li> <li>Crew wore all black or costumes to maintain the audience focus</li> <li>Props are effectively used to give detail to the world of the play, are historically accurate, and keep with the story and/or color palette of the play</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING SOUND DESIGN RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
DESIGN ELEMENTS Includes elements of design and artistry and how they combine to create the world of the play.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Sound design rarely represented the ideas of the play</li> <li>• Sound design rarely represented time and place, established character, enhanced theme and mood, or created dramatic environments</li> <li>• An effort was made to balance the sound created by the leads and chorus but sometimes one overpowered the other</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Sound design sometimes represented the ideas of the play and demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> <li>• Sound design sometimes represented time and place, established character, enhanced theme and mood, and created dramatic environments</li> <li>• Chorus and lead singers blended well most of the time</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Designers clearly collaborated together to make a unified production concept and the sound design supports the story and concept</li> <li>• Sound design often represented time and place, established character, enhanced theme and mood, and created dramatic environments</li> <li>• Transition from leading voices to chorus were seamless and all voices blended to produce a rich, pleasing sound</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Designers clearly collaborated together to make a unified production concept and the sound design supports the story and concept</li> <li>• Sound design always represented time and place, established character, enhanced theme and mood, and created dramatic environments</li> <li>• A full satisfying sound was achieved by deftly balancing each of the elements</li> </ul>
EXECUTION AND FUNCTIONALITY Includes actual functionality and execution of the sound elements during the performance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Music and singers could usually both be heard but further effort could be made to create balance</li> <li>• Cues were often late or missed, causing distractions and pacing issues</li> <li>• Performers are often difficult to hear</li> <li>• Actors' microphones were rarely cued properly or live when appropriate</li> <li>• Sound was rarely well balanced for all regions of the theater, or between singers, actors and orchestra</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lead voices were usually in the foreground when appropriate and most of the sound was balanced well</li> <li>• Cues were sometimes called and implemented appropriately, with some isolated issues</li> <li>• Performers are audible and clearly heard with a few isolated issues</li> <li>• Actors' microphones were sometimes cued properly and live when appropriate</li> <li>• Sound was sometimes well balanced for all regions of the theater, as well as between singers, actors and orchestra</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Transition from leading voices to chorus were seamless and all voices blended to produce a rich, pleasing sound; underscoring was at an appropriate and dynamic level</li> <li>• Cues were often called and implemented smoothly</li> <li>• Limited to no distortion, each performer is clearly audible and sound levels are comfortable</li> <li>• Actors' microphones were usually cued properly and live when appropriate</li> <li>• Sound was mostly well balanced for all regions of the theater, as well as between singers, actors and orchestra</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A full satisfying sound was achieved by deftly balancing each of the elements with appropriate and dynamic levels</li> <li>• Cues were called and implemented smoothly and on-time</li> <li>• No distortion, each performer is clearly audible and sound levels are comfortable</li> <li>• Actors' microphones were cued properly and live when appropriate</li> <li>• Sound was well balanced for all regions of the theater, as well as between singers, actors and orchestra</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING DESIGN CONCEPT RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
DESIGN CONCEPT The design concept of a show ensures the audience is transported to another time and place and that both the story and theme are communicated through all elements with a clear and unified vision, collaboration and overall creativity.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>All design and technical elements served the basic requirements outlined in the script</li> <li>Revealed little to no collaboration among the designers and the directors to ensure design consistency</li> <li>Design rarely represented the ideas of the play or demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Central themes began to emerge through design elements</li> <li>An attempt was made to present a unified concept with some collaboration from all technical components</li> <li>Design sometimes represented the ideas of the play and demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>In addition to clearly showing how characters genuinely changed, the story was given a fresh look through a distinctive concept by advancing nuanced themes</li> <li>Design revealed collaboration among the designers and directors to ensure design consistency</li> <li>A clear vision of the concept for the production was carried out with creative contributions from each technical area</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The detailed and fresh approach was creative, meaningful and memorable</li> <li>Technical elements were fully integrated into the concept so that each visual image within the production was gratifying</li> <li>Obvious collaboration among the designers and directors to ensure design consistency</li> <li>Design perfectly represented the ideas of the play and demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept</li> </ul>
EXECUTION How effectively the design concept transmitted the story and theme to the audience, and how the elements were pulled together considering the school circumstances and available resources.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Design elements were rarely appropriate or applied to represent time and place, establish character, enhance theme, mood or create dramatic environments</li> <li>The story, plot and theme were rarely evident through the music, performance, movements, or technical elements</li> <li>Interpretations and choices showed a lack of creativity, forethought and cohesive planning</li> <li>Considering the school's circumstances and available resources, elements were pulled together in a manner that would be considered less than average</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Design elements were sometimes appropriate, represented time and place, established character, enhanced theme and mood, and created dramatic environments</li> <li>The story, plot and theme were sometimes evident through music, performance, movements, and all technical elements</li> <li>Interpretations and choices showed some creativity, forethought and cohesive planning</li> <li>Considering the school's circumstances and available resources, elements were pulled together in a manner that would be considered average</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Design elements often communicated the ideas of the play and demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept that represented time and place, established character, enhanced theme and mood, and created dramatic environments</li> <li>The story, plot and theme were often evident through music, performance, movements, and all technical elements</li> <li>Interpretations and choices showed creativity, forethought and cohesive planning</li> <li>Production reflects effective use of the school's resources</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Design elements always communicated the ideas of the play and demonstrated a meaningful, unified production concept that represented time and place, established character, enhanced theme and mood, and created dramatic environments</li> <li>The story, plot and theme were always evident through music, performance, movements, and all technical elements</li> <li>Interpretations and choices showed thorough creativity, forethought and cohesive planning</li> <li>Production reflected superior use of resources</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING CHOREOGRAPHY RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
STORYTELLING ELEMENTS Choreography in a production should assist in telling the story by reflecting the themes, mood and style of the play and the characters involved.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An attempt was made to introduce choreography based on the story's time, place and culture, but rarely enhanced or complemented the content of the show</li> <li>• The dance style dictated by the music was basically realized</li> <li>• Basic choreographed sequences were tailored to the ability of the performers OR challenging sequences were choreographed but performers could not match the level of difficulty</li> <li>• Choreography rarely showed originality or creativity, and rarely developed the story line or made use of levels and floor space</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Choreographed sequences were largely authentic to the story's time, place, and culture</li> <li>• Choreography began to evolve from growing tension within scenes and incorporated some character traits</li> <li>• Dance style closely matched the style of music</li> <li>• Placement of performers and flow of dance segments showed a strong sense of spatial awareness in the creation of stage pictures and effective use of levels and floor space</li> <li>• Intermediate choreographed sequences were included</li> <li>• Choreography often showed originality and creativity to help develop the story line</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Choreography was accurately reflective of the story's time, place and culture throughout</li> <li>• All choreography was intrinsically imbued with character traits and feelings, and was ignited by the story's rising action</li> <li>• Dances precisely met the demands of the style of music</li> <li>• Advanced use of levels, creative entrances and exits, as well as unique formations elevated the power of the stage pictures</li> <li>• Choreography was well-versed and showcased individuals' special abilities</li> <li>• Choreography was original and creative, developing the story and using interesting stage pictures to engage the audience</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Choreography successfully captured the story's time, place and culture with superior attention to detail, and the story's themes were clarified through dance</li> <li>• Audience gained a depth of understanding about characters through the choreography</li> <li>• Choreography was stylistically accurate and elevated the form</li> <li>• There was a sophisticated use of space as the performers cleverly exploited all areas and levels of the stage</li> <li>• Choreography was exciting, original and creative, developing the story and using interesting stage pictures to engage the audience</li> </ul>
EXECUTION Outstanding execution of the choreography should be precise and energetic, while sharing the character intentions and themes of the show.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dance execution rarely demonstrated precision, creating an un-rehearsed feel OR movements are focused on proper execution of a step rather than fitting into a story</li> <li>• Performers had good posture and body awareness, and understood the basic requirements of choreography, but rarely demonstrated emotion appropriate to the style and mood of the show</li> <li>• Transitions were rarely flowing and continuous</li> <li>• Dancers rarely demonstrated stamina, stage presence or poise, but persevered through nervousness</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dancers demonstrated some dance vocabulary and intermediate sequences were successfully performed</li> <li>• Performers had good posture and body awareness, and understood the requirements, often demonstrating emotion appropriate to the show</li> <li>• Performers appeared focused and aware of surroundings, and generally comfortable</li> <li>• Performers exhibited strength, flexibility and control, moved with determined energy and executed choreography with ease</li> <li>• Transitions were sometimes flowing and continuous</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The cast moved with precision and unison and the choreography demonstrated animation and character intentions</li> <li>• The sequences were challenging but within performers' range</li> <li>• Dancers are at ease on stage, perform expressively with, rather than to, the music and demonstrate emotion appropriate to the show</li> <li>• In addition to strength, flexibility and control, dancers could freely add style to suit the music</li> <li>• Transitions were often flowing and continuous</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The cast moved with precision and unison and the choreography demonstrated animation and character intentions</li> <li>• Performers surpassed the technical requirements of the choreography to project a sense of confidence and personal interpretation</li> <li>• Performers moved effortlessly from number to number and easily executed all sequences</li> <li>• Gestures and movement naturally flowed as a response to character and the situation</li> <li>• Transitions were flowing and continuous</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING MUSIC DIRECTION RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
STORYTELLING AND INTERPRETATION Music Director guides performers to consistently high levels of expression and artistry, while creating and maintaining a consistency of musical elements overall.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Tempo choices were appropriate for the style of the music (brisk for rock-n-roll, luxurious for jazz, regimented for marches, etc.)</li> <li>• Pace and rhythm rarely supporting the actors' understanding of the piece throughout the performance</li> <li>• The music rarely enhanced the mood or atmosphere of the play</li> <li>• Stylistic choices are rarely directed to enhance the story</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Tempo choices were appropriate for the style of music</li> <li>• Basic phrasing variances were introduced to add meaning to the content of the songs</li> <li>• Basic dynamics – a compelling use of volume and pacing – were also used to amplify or place focus on special moments in the story</li> <li>• Stylistic choices are attempted to enhance the period and location of the music (char voice, accents, dialects, etc., with varying success</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Tempo choices added intensity and enhanced dramatic moments and added to the pacing of the show</li> <li>• Phrasing heightened the development of character</li> <li>• Dynamics were varied to convey emotional content and give a sense of a song as a unique way to tell a story</li> <li>• Specific stylistic choices are sometimes directed to enhance the period and location of the music (char voice, accents, dialects, etc.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The interpretation of the story was intrinsically enhanced by vibrant musical expression – tempo was dynamic, cue pick-ups were expert, and phrasing gave new meaning to characters</li> <li>• Performers' musicianship demonstrated a complete understanding of what they were singing about and how it connected to their characters' development</li> <li>• The music inspired emotional content from singers to elevate both the story and add depth to the characters</li> <li>• Specific stylistic choices are directed to enhance the period and location of the music (char voice, accents, dialects, etc.</li> </ul>
EXECUTION OF BALANCE, BLEND AND ACCURACY Creates an appropriate vocal balance between chorus and principals as well as an overall balance between stage performers and musical accompaniment, allowing the audience to hear all elements.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An effort was made to balance the sound created by the leads and chorus but sometimes one overpowered the other</li> <li>• Music and singers could usually both be heard but further effort could be made to create balance</li> <li>• Musical cues (including entrances, tempo changes, cut-offs, etc.) were rarely picked up from the stage</li> <li>• Singers exhibited basic skills in diction, rhythm and pitch and simple harmonies were attempted</li> <li>• Singers rarely delivered songs through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation or projection</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Chorus and lead singers blended well most of the time, and lead voices were usually in the foreground when appropriate</li> <li>• Music endeavored to support rather than overpower the singers</li> <li>• Musical cues were often picked up from the stage; singers were familiar enough with the music to confidently attack entrances and cut-offs</li> <li>• Singers exhibited skills in diction, rhythm and pitch; lyrics were mostly intelligible, and sounds were rarely sharp or flat</li> <li>• Singers could navigate simple or more demanding rhythms with little trouble and were comfortable with basic harmonies</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Transition from leading voices to chorus were seamless and all voices blended to produce a rich, pleasing sound; underscoring was at an appropriate and dynamic level</li> <li>• Music adapted to support each singer at their ability level</li> <li>• Musical cues were usually picked up from the stage; singers were familiar enough with the music to confidently attack entrances and cut-offs</li> <li>• Singers reliably executed the necessary diction, rhythm and pitch requirements</li> <li>• Singers were adept at producing simple and complex harmonies and rhythms</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A full satisfying sound was achieved by deftly balancing each of the elements</li> <li>• The music resonated, filled the room and uplifted the story</li> <li>• The music direction subliminally directed attention to the important action of the story</li> <li>• Musical cues were always picked up from the stage</li> <li>• Singers reliably executed the necessary diction, rhythm and pitch requirements and were adept at producing simple and complex harmonies and rhythms</li> <li>• The accuracy of the music as written was so effortlessly accomplished the content and message of each song was clear</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING DIRECTION RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
DIRECTION CONCEPT Interpretation of the story and its themes, including a clear and unified vision, collaboration and creativity.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Presented the story so the events logically transpired but without impacting the characters</li> <li>All technical elements served the basic requirements outlined in the script</li> <li>The theme was rarely evident through the music, movements, and technical elements</li> <li>Execution of direction rarely displayed a creative, original vision into the overall performance</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Created a layered story so the main events clearly changed the characters</li> <li>An attempt was made to present a unified concept with input from all technical components</li> <li>Central themes began to emerge; the theme was sometimes evident through the music, movements, and technical elements</li> <li>Execution of direction sometimes displayed a creative, original vision into the overall performance</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>In addition to clearly showing how characters genuinely changed, the story was given a fresh look through a distinctive concept by advancing nuanced themes</li> <li>A clear vision of the concept for the production was carried out with creative contributions from each technical area</li> <li>The theme was often evident through the music, movements, and technical elements</li> <li>Execution of direction often displayed a creative, original vision into the overall performance</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Shaped a story so detailed and fresh that as the characters changed and evolved, the audience felt a change within themselves</li> <li>The approach was meaningful, memorable, and creative</li> <li>Technical elements were fully integrated into the concept such that each visual image within the production was gratifying</li> <li>The theme was always evident through the music, movements, and technical elements</li> <li>Execution of direction displayed a creative, original vision into the overall performance</li> </ul>
STAGING AND MOVEMENT All elements of staging and movement – including blocking, stage business, dance, stage combat, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Good traffic flow with little upstaging</li> <li>Students showed a straightforward understanding of blocking</li> <li>Blocking often created visibility problems, and actors are sometimes upstaged by sets, props, costumes, or other actors</li> <li>No clear physical pictures</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>In addition to efficient blocking, the stage pictures were varied, rarely static, and made use of levels</li> <li>Blocking usually allows actors to be clearly seen, and actors are not usually upstaged by sets, props, costumes, or other actors</li> <li>Slight effort to create physical pictures</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The captivating stage pictures were further enhanced with business (use of props) that illuminated character traits</li> <li>Blocking allows actors to be clearly seen, entrances and exits contribute to dramatic structure and focus, and actors are rarely upstaged by sets, props, costumes, or other actors</li> <li>Created some interesting physical pictures</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Wherever an audience member looked, there was a textured picture that was reached through astute blocking and clever business, all executed with panache</li> <li>Blocking makes actors clearly visible, entrances and exits contribute to dramatic structure and focus, and actors are never upstaged by sets, props, costumes, or other actors</li> <li>Created strong physical pictures</li> </ul>
PACING / PREPAREDNESS Created a well-rehearsed feel with effective pacing within the flow of lines, scenes, blocking and transitions.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The scenes moved at a somewhat reasonable pace with some moments of stalling action</li> <li>Transitions slowed the action</li> <li>There was rarely a smoothness of action among actors, musicians, and production team</li> <li>The performance rarely seemed organized, fluid, or cohesive</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The show had effective, intentional pace</li> <li>Transitions from scene to scene were mostly efficient, with minimal noise and delay</li> <li>There was sometimes a smoothness of action which indicated plenty of rehearsal and cooperation among actors, musicians, and production team</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The show set a strong pace at the outset and never let up</li> <li>The transitions were seamless, moving swiftly and almost soundlessly</li> <li>There was often a smoothness of action with indicated plenty of rehearsal and cooperation among actors, musicians, and production team</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There was bold pacing throughout that supported the action</li> <li>The scene shifts moved swiftly and soundlessly and were beautifully staged to help tell the story</li> <li>There was always a smoothness of action which indicated plenty of rehearsal and cooperation among actors, musicians, and production team</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING DIRECTION RUBRIC

CHARACTER COACHING AND ENSEMBLE WORK Director created authentic, unique, believable and consistent characters while guiding all performers to have a strong sense of their role and character relationships and understanding of the overall concept and themes.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Characters were distinguishable from one another through physical difference, but more internal work could be done</li> <li>• Actors provided a sense of time and place but need more work to supply energy and engagement</li> <li>• Actors with multiple roles were somewhat distinguishable as unique characters, but caused some confusion</li> <li>• Production rarely demonstrated objectives or obstacles of the piece</li> <li>• Actors rarely demonstrated any sense of their role, how they support the story or their dramatic function as individuals and as a group</li> <li>• Actors provide basic dialogue interpretation, with little emotional connection, believability, energy, or interest</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Actors showed evidence of internal character work (thinking before speaking, engaged, creating a backstory, etc.) and dynamic relationships with other characters</li> <li>• Actors used purposeful focus to engage in the story, often demonstrating clear objectives and obstacles</li> <li>• Actors with multiple roles were distinguishable as unique characters, but mostly due to costume elements rather than characterization</li> <li>• Actors sometimes demonstrated a sense of their role, how they support the story and their dramatic function as individuals and as a group</li> <li>• Actors provide some effective dialogue interpretation, with some emotional connection, believability, energy, and interest</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Characters were complete, believable and there were strong dynamic relationships between various individuals on stage</li> <li>• Characters stayed consistent through song and dance as well</li> <li>• Actors with multiple roles were easily distinguishable as unique characters</li> <li>• Character obstacles and objectives were clearly communicated and used throughout the story to clarify the theme and overall concept</li> <li>• Actors demonstrated some sense of their role, how they support the story and their dramatic function as individuals and as a group</li> <li>• Actors provide effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy, and interest</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In addition to strong acting, the singing and dancing naturally sprung from character motivation and rising action in the story</li> <li>• Each individual character was complete, believable, and consistent, and the story thrives due to the dynamic interactions of the whole cast</li> <li>• Actors with multiple roles were easily distinguishable as unique characters, and often not recognized to be the same actor</li> <li>• Character obstacles and objectives were clearly communicated and used to clarify the theme and overall concept</li> <li>• Actors have a strong sense of their role, how they support the story and their dramatic function</li> <li>• Actors provide effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy, and interest</li> </ul>
OVERALL EXPERIENCE The overall experience should keep audience members engaged within the story and with the characters, while creating varied emotions and encouraging discussions in the real world.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The musical rarely showcased the diverse talents of the school or cast and produced few engaging moments</li> <li>• Choice of material is not appropriate for students (length, level of difficulty, content, etc.) or audience, and/or contained harmful content or stereotypes</li> <li>• The production does not reflect an effective use of the school's resources</li> <li>• No clear focus in the overall story arc or individual scenes, or the connection to acting choices, designs and technical elements</li> <li>• Overall, the experience as an audience member was challenging with little to no enjoyment</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The musical sometimes showcased the diverse talents of the school and/or cast and produced some engaging moments</li> <li>• Choice of material is mostly appropriate for students and audience, and sometimes reflects an effective use of the school's resources</li> <li>• Sometimes focused scenes and beats, and attempted to ensure all acting choices, designs and technical elements contributed to and supported that focus</li> <li>• Overall, the experience as an audience member was acceptable, but not very enjoyable</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The musical often showcased the diverse talents of the school, cast and technicians, and produced mostly strong elements of musical theater</li> <li>• Choice of material is appropriate for students and audience, and mostly reflects an effective use of the school's resources</li> <li>• Mostly focused each scene and beat, and ensured that all acting choices, designs, and technical elements contributed to and supported that focus</li> <li>• Overall, the experience as an audience member was mostly fun and enjoyable</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The musical showcased diverse talents of the school, cast and technicians, and produced strong elements of quality musical theater</li> <li>• Choice of material is appropriate for students and audience, and the production reflects an effective use of school resources</li> <li>• Clearly focused each scene and beat, and ensured that all acting choices, designs, and technical elements contributed to and supported that focus</li> <li>• Overall, the experience as an audience member was fun and enjoyable</li> <li>• Shaped a story so detailed and fresh that as the characters changed &amp; evolved, the audience felt a change within themselves</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING MALE AND FEMALE DANCER RUBRIC

Nominations for Outstanding Male and Female Dancers can be made for Lead, Supporting, or Ensemble Roles.

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
OUTSTANDING MALE AND FEMALE DANCER Outstanding Dancers should be precise and energetic, while sharing the character intentions and themes of the show.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Dancer's movement provided a sense of time and place but need more work to supply energy, engagement, and storytelling</li> <li>Character rarely stayed consistent through dance numbers</li> <li>Dance execution rarely demonstrated precision, creating an un-rehearsed feel OR movements are focused on proper execution of a step rather than fitting into a story</li> <li>Performer had good posture, body awareness, and understood the basic requirements of dance, but rarely demonstrated emotion appropriate to the style and mood of the show</li> <li>Transitions were rarely flowing and continuous</li> <li>Dancer rarely demonstrated stamina, stage presence or poise throughout the performance, but persevered through nervousness</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Dancer's movement provided a sense of time and place, and often supplied energy, engagement, and storytelling</li> <li>Character sometimes stayed consistent through dance numbers</li> <li>Dancer demonstrated some dance vocabulary and intermediate sequences were successfully performed</li> <li>Performer had good posture, body awareness, understood the dance requirements, and sometimes demonstrated emotion appropriate to the show</li> <li>Transitions were sometimes flowing and continuous</li> <li>Dancer appeared focused, poised, aware of surroundings, and generally comfortable</li> <li>Dancer exhibited strength, stamina, flexibility and control, moved with determined energy and executed choreography with ease</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Dancer's movement defined time and place while supplying energy, engagement, and storytelling</li> <li>Character usually stayed consistent through dance numbers</li> <li>Dancer moved with precision, successfully performed complex dance sequences, and movement was imbued with animation and character's intentions</li> <li>Performer had good posture, body awareness, understood the dance requirements, and often demonstrated emotion appropriate to the show</li> <li>Transitions were often flowing and continuous</li> <li>Dancer is at ease on stage, appearing focused, poised and aware of surroundings while performing expressively with, rather than to, the music</li> <li>In addition to strength, flexibility and control, dancer could freely add style to suit the music</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Dancer's movement defined time and place while supplying consistent energy, complete engagement, and storytelling</li> <li>Character always stayed consistent through dance numbers</li> <li>Dancer moved with precision, successfully performed complex dance sequences, and movement was imbued with animation and character's intentions</li> <li>Dancer surpassed the technical requirements of the choreography to project a sense of confidence and personal interpretation appropriate to the show</li> <li>Transitions were flowing and continuous</li> <li>Dancer exhibited strength, flexibility and control, and moved effortlessly from number to number, easily executing the sequences</li> <li>Gestures and movement naturally flowed as a response to character and the situation</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING MALE AND FEMALE SOLOIST RUBRIC

Nominations for Outstanding Male and Female Soloists can be made for Lead, Supporting, or Ensemble Roles.

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
OUTSTANDING MALE AND FEMALE SOLOIST Vocal interpretation is essential to storytelling within a musical, including, but not limited to, dynamics, intonation, tone and texture. Soloists should exhibit outstanding vocal interpretation as well as accuracy and advanced performance execution.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Followed music direction with basic meaning of lyrics but has yet to add personal interpretation</li> <li>Basic phrasing variances were introduced to add meaning to the content of the songs</li> <li>Singer rarely made the connection between technique and interpretation</li> <li>Musical cues were often missed</li> <li>Singer exhibited skills in basic diction, rhythm and pitch, is comfortable with simple melodies and rhythms, and sought to stay in tune</li> <li>Still needs assistance with precise attack on individual words</li> <li>Singer rarely delivered songs through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation or projection</li> <li>Singer rarely sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing or dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Basic dynamics – a compelling use of volume and pacing – were also used to amplify or place focus on special moments in the story</li> <li>Singer is beginning to add personal interpretation through phrasing at a competent level</li> <li>Tone is accurate, but without texture</li> <li>Attempted to match the appropriate style with the lyric</li> <li>Musical cues were sometimes missed</li> <li>Lyrics were intelligible and sounds were rarely sharp or flat</li> <li>Singer sometimes delivered songs through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation and projection</li> <li>Singer often sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Dynamics were varied to convey emotional content and give a sense of a song as a unique way to tell a story</li> <li>Phrasing heightened the development of character</li> <li>Discovered a personal style of interpretation in line with the character's life choices</li> <li>Integrated the style of the song with the lyric</li> <li>Singer was familiar enough with the music to confidently attack entrances and cut-offs, and musical cues were rarely missed</li> <li>Singer reliably executed crisp diction, demanding rhythms and accurate pitch requirements</li> <li>Singer was adept at producing simple and complex harmonies and rhythms, and were consistently in tune</li> <li>Singer often delivered songs through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation and projection</li> <li>Actor sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The interpretation of the story was intrinsically enhanced by vibrant musical expression – tempo was dynamic, cue pick-ups were expert, and phrasing gave new meaning to characters</li> <li>Musicianship demonstrated a complete understanding of what they were singing about and how it connected to their characters' development</li> <li>Singer inspired emotional content to elevate both the story and add depth to the characters</li> <li>Made the connection between technique and interpretation that integrally weaves songs into the story</li> <li>Displayed precise accuracy with simple and complex melodies and rhythms, and was unerringly in tune</li> <li>Singer always delivered songs through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation and projection</li> <li>Actor always sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – INDIVIDUAL PERFORMANCE RUBRIC

Rubric for Outstanding Dramatic Actor/Actress, Outstanding Comedic Actor/Actress, Supporting Actor/Actress, Ensemble Actor/Actress

- Lead Roles include at least one solo song, appearances in more than one scene with spoken dialogue, and appear in both or all acts.
  - Can be nominated for Outstanding Comedic Actor and Actress, Outstanding Dramatic Actor and Actress
- Supporting Roles are scripted, named characters with either spoken or sung dialogue which help drive the action of the play forward.
  - Can be nominated for Outstanding Supporting Actor and Actress, Outstanding Comedic Actor and Actress, Outstanding Dramatic Actor and Actress
- Ensemble Roles are named or unnamed characters with less than 5 lines of spoken or sung dialogue.
  - Can be nominated for Outstanding Ensemble Actor and Actress

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
OUTSTANDING ACTING IN A MUSICAL Actor created authentic, unique, believable and consistent characters while maintaining a strong sense of their role, character relationships and understanding of the overall concept and themes.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Characters were distinguishable from one another through physical difference, but more internal work could be done</li> <li>• Performance rarely demonstrated objectives or obstacles</li> <li>• Actor provided basic dialogue interpretation, with little emotional connection, believability, energy or interest.</li> <li>• Actor rarely sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing or dramatic expression</li> <li>• Actor rarely listened to others or reacted accordingly</li> <li>• Actor rarely displayed stage presence, energy, poise and ease</li> <li>• Actor rarely commits to their character or stays immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>• Actor often breaks focus</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Actor showed evidence of internal character work (thinking before speaking, engaged, creating a backstory, etc.) and dynamic relationships with other characters</li> <li>• Actor used purposeful focus to engage in the story, often demonstrating clear objectives and obstacles</li> <li>• Actor provided some effective dialogue interpretation, with some emotional connection, believability, energy and interest</li> <li>• Actor often sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> <li>• Actor sometimes listened to others and reacted accordingly</li> <li>• Actor sometimes displayed stage presence, energy, poise and ease</li> <li>• Some evidence that the actor commits to their character and stays immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>• Actor sometimes breaks focus, mainly due to missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Characters were complete, believable and there were strong dynamic relationships between various individuals on stage</li> <li>• Characters stayed consistent through song and dance as well</li> <li>• Character obstacles and objectives were clearly communicated and used throughout the story to clarify the theme and overall concept</li> <li>• Actor provided effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy and interest</li> <li>• Actor sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> <li>• Actor often demonstrated effective group dynamics and active focus, concentration and awareness, listening to others and reacting accordingly</li> <li>• Actor often displayed stage presence, energy, poise and ease</li> <li>• Actor mostly commits to their character and stays immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>• Actor rarely breaks focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Characters were complete, believable and there were strong dynamic relationships between various individuals on stage</li> <li>• Characters stayed consistent through song and dance as well</li> <li>• Character obstacles and objectives were clearly communicated and used to clarify the theme and overall concept</li> <li>• Actor provided effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy and interest</li> <li>• Actor always sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> <li>• Actor demonstrated effective group dynamics and active focus, concentration and awareness, listening to others and reacting accordingly</li> <li>• Actor displayed stage presence, energy, poise and ease</li> <li>• Actor strongly commits to their character and stays immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>• Actor never breaks focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING SOLO PERFORMANCE RUBRIC

Nominations for Outstanding Solo Performance can be made for any role with a solo performance.

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
OUTSTANDING SOLO PERFORMANCE Vocal interpretation is essential to storytelling within a musical, including, but not limited to, dynamics, intonation, tone and texture. Vocalists should exhibit outstanding vocal interpretation as well as accuracy and advanced performance execution. This category is focused on an individual song performance that made a meaningful impact on the audience.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Followed music direction with basic meaning of lyrics but has yet to add personal interpretation</li> <li>Performer rarely made the connection between technique and interpretation</li> <li>Performer exhibited skills in basic diction, rhythm and pitch, is comfortable with simple melodies and rhythms, and sought to stay in tune</li> <li>Still needs assistance with precise attack on individual words</li> <li>Performer did not deliver song through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation or projection</li> <li>Performer rarely sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing or dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Performer is beginning to add personal interpretation through phrasing at a competent level</li> <li>Tone is accurate, but without texture</li> <li>Attempted to match the appropriate style with the lyric</li> <li>Musical cues were sometimes missed</li> <li>Lyrics were intelligible and sounds were rarely sharp or flat</li> <li>Performer delivered song through some characterizations with nice vocal tone, rhythm, intonation and projection</li> <li>Performer sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The solo performance of one song created a memorable moment that stood out in a unique way.</li> <li>Emotional expression, characterization and storytelling mostly carries into musicality, showing an understanding of the meaning within the song and shares the interpretation vocally</li> <li>Made the connection between technique and interpretation that weaves songs into the story</li> <li>Performer delivered song through strong characterizations vocal tone, rhythm, intonation and projection</li> <li>Performer sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> <li>Enthusiastic and confident, audience-engaging performance; Made the audience feel something, pulling them into the story emotionally/mentally</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The solo performance of one song created a memorable moment of artistic excellence that stood out in a unique way.</li> <li>Emotional expression, characterization and storytelling carries into musicality, showing a clear understanding of the meaning within the song and shares the interpretation vocally</li> <li>Made the connection between technique and interpretation that integrally weaves songs into the story</li> <li>Performer delivered song through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation and projection</li> <li>Performer sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> <li>Enthusiastic and confident, audience-engaging performance; Made the audience feel something, pulling them into the story emotionally/mentally</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING SCENE PARTNER

Nominations for Outstanding Scene Partner can be for any role (Lead, Supporting or Ensemble).

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
OUTSTANDING SCENE PARTNER Performer created authentic, unique, believable and consistent characters while maintaining a strong sense of their role, character relationships and understanding of the overall concept and themes.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Performer demonstrated lack of focus, concentration, and awareness</li> <li>• Performer rarely commits to their character, sometimes demonstrating effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy, and interest</li> <li>• Performer never breaks focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> <li>• Characters were somewhat complete and believable</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Performer demonstrated some focus, concentration, and awareness, listening to others and reacting accordingly</li> <li>• Performer sometimes commits to their character, sometimes demonstrating effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy, and interest</li> <li>• Performer never breaks character/focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> <li>• Performer is mostly focused and aware of surroundings while performing expressively</li> <li>• Characters were somewhat complete and believable</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Performer demonstrated effective group dynamics and active focus, concentration, and awareness, listening to others and reacting accordingly</li> <li>• Performer commits to their character and stays immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>• Performer never breaks character/focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> <li>• Performer is mostly at ease on stage, appearing focused, poised, confident and aware of surroundings while performing expressively</li> <li>• Characters were believable and there were some dynamic relationships between various individuals on stage</li> <li>• Performer provided effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy, and interest</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Performer demonstrated effective group dynamics and active focus, concentration, and awareness, listening to others and reacting accordingly</li> <li>• Character performance so clear and impactful that every scene and acting partner benefited from their presence</li> <li>• Performer completely commits to their character and stays immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> <li>• Performer never breaks character/focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> <li>• Performer is at ease on stage, appearing focused, poised, confident and aware of surroundings while performing expressively</li> <li>• Characters were complete, believable and there were strong dynamic relationships between various individuals on stage</li> <li>• Performer provided effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy, and interest</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING LEAD ACTOR AND ACTRESS RUBRIC

	DEVELOPING (1-2)	PROFICIENT (3-5)	SKILLED (6-8)	ADVANCED (9-10)
CHARACTER AND COHESIVE PARTNER WORK Actor created authentic, unique, believable and consistent characters while maintaining a strong sense of their role, character relationships and understanding of the overall concept and themes.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Characters were distinguishable from one another through physical difference, but more internal work could be done</li> <li>• Performance rarely demonstrated objectives or obstacles</li> <li>• Actor provided basic dialogue interpretation, with little emotional connection, believability, energy or interest</li> <li>• Actor rarely listened to others or reacted accordingly</li> <li>• Actor rarely committed to their character or stayed immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Actor showed evidence of internal character work (thinking before speaking, engaged, creating a backstory, etc.) and dynamic relationships with other characters</li> <li>• Actor used purposeful focus to engage in the story, often demonstrating clear objectives and obstacles</li> <li>• Actor provided some effective dialogue interpretation, with some emotional connection, believability, energy and interest</li> <li>• Actor sometimes listened to others and reacted accordingly</li> <li>• Some evidence that the actor committed to their character and stayed immersed in their journey throughout the play</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Characters were complete, believable and there were strong dynamic relationships between various individuals on stage</li> <li>• Character obstacles and objectives were clearly communicated and used throughout the story to clarify the theme and overall concept</li> <li>• Actor provided effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy and interest</li> <li>• Actor often demonstrated effective group dynamics and active focus, concentration and awareness, listening to others and reacting accordingly</li> <li>• Actor mostly committed to their character and stayed immersed in their journey throughout</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Characters were complete, believable and there were strong dynamic relationships between various individuals on stage</li> <li>• Character obstacles and objectives were clearly communicated and used to clarify the theme and overall concept</li> <li>• Actor provided effective dialogue interpretation, with emotional connection, believability, energy and interest</li> <li>• Actor demonstrated effective group dynamics and active focus, concentration and awareness, listening to others and reacting accordingly</li> <li>• Actor strongly committed to their character and stayed immersed in their journey throughout</li> </ul>
MUSICALITY AND VOCALIZATION Outstanding Leads should exhibit outstanding vocal interpretation as well as accuracy and advanced performance execution.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Followed music direction with basic meaning of lyrics but has yet to add personal interpretation</li> <li>• Singer rarely made the connection between technique and interpretation</li> <li>• Singer exhibited skills in basic diction, rhythm and pitch, is comfortable with simple melodies and rhythms, and sought to stay in tune</li> <li>• Singer rarely sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing or dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Basic dynamics – a compelling use of volume and pacing – were used to amplify or place focus on special moments in the story</li> <li>• Tone is accurate, but without texture</li> <li>• Lyrics were intelligible and sounds were rarely sharp or flat</li> <li>• Singer exhibited skills in basic diction, rhythm and pitch, is comfortable with simple melodies and rhythms, and mostly remained in tune</li> <li>• Singer often sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dynamics were varied to convey emotional content and give a sense of a song as a unique way to tell a story</li> <li>• Singer was familiar enough with the music to confidently attack entrances and cut-offs, and musical cues were rarely missed</li> <li>• Singer reliably executed crisp diction, demanding rhythms and accurate pitch requirements</li> <li>• Singer often delivered songs through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation and projection</li> <li>• Actor sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The interpretation of the story was intrinsically enhanced by vibrant musical expression – tempo was dynamic, cue pick-ups were expert, and phrasing gave new meaning to characters</li> <li>• Musicianship demonstrated a complete understanding of what they were singing about and how it connected to their characters' development</li> <li>• Singer always delivered songs through believable characterizations with strong vocal tone, rhythm, intonation and projection</li> <li>• Actor always sang with emotional understanding, adequate volume, proper diction, correct pitch and tone, supported breathing and dramatic expression</li> </ul>

SPOTLIGHT AWARDS – OUTSTANDING LEAD ACTOR AND ACTRESS RUBRIC

ENERGY AND PRESENCE Lead Actors should demonstrate strong focus, concentration, stamina, stage presence, and professionalism.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Actor rarely displayed stage presence, confidence or professionalism</li> <li>• Performer rarely demonstrated stamina, stage presence or poise, but persevered through nervousness</li> <li>• Actor often breaks focus</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Actor sometimes displayed stage presence, confidence and professionalism</li> <li>• Performer appeared focused, poised, aware of surroundings, and generally comfortable</li> <li>• Actor sometimes breaks focus, mainly due to missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Actor often displayed stage presence, confidence and professionalism</li> <li>• Performer is at ease on stage, appearing focused, poised and aware of surroundings while performing expressively</li> <li>• Actor rarely breaks focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Actor displayed stage presence, confidence and professionalism</li> <li>• Performer is at ease on stage, appearing focused, poised and aware of surroundings while performing expressively</li> <li>• Actor never breaks focus, even during missed lines/cues or mistakes in the music</li> </ul>
MOVEMENT AND DANCE Outstanding Leads should demonstrate movement that is precise and energetic, while sharing the character intentions and themes of the show.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Character rarely stayed consistent through dance numbers</li> <li>• Dance execution rarely demonstrated precision, creating an un-rehearsed feel OR movements are focused on proper execution of a step rather than fitting into a story</li> <li>• Gestures and movement rarely flowed as a response to character and the situation</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Character usually stayed consistent through dance numbers</li> <li>• Dance execution demonstrated some dance vocabulary and intermediate sequences were successfully performed</li> <li>• Performer exhibited strength, stamina, flexibility and control, moved with determined energy and executed choreography with ease</li> <li>• Gestures and movement sometimes flowed as a response to character and the situation</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Character stayed consistent through dance numbers</li> <li>• Performer moved with precision, successfully performed complex dance sequences, and movement was imbued with animation and character's intentions</li> <li>• In addition to strength, flexibility and control, performer could freely add style to suit the music</li> <li>• Gestures and movement usually flowed naturally as a response to character and the situation</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Character stayed consistent through dance numbers</li> <li>• Performer moved with precision, successfully performed complex dance sequences, and movement was imbued with animation and character's intentions</li> <li>• Performer exhibited strength, flexibility and control, and moved effortlessly from number to number, easily executing the sequences</li> <li>• Gestures and movement naturally flowed as a response to character and the situation</li> </ul>
OVERALL IMPACT Outstanding Leads demonstrate strong acting choices and emotional connections that creates a meaningful, memorable and high-quality theatrical experience for the audience.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The role rarely showcased the diverse talents of the actor or produced elements of quality musical theater</li> <li>• Performance demonstrates no clear focus or connection to acting choices within the overall story arc</li> <li>• Poor acting choices and lack of emotional connection of the actor creates a barrier to the audience's emotional response to the piece</li> <li>• Overall, the actor performed the role on a basic, below-average level</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The role sometimes showcased the diverse talents of the actor and produced elements of quality musical theater</li> <li>• Performance sometimes demonstrates clear focus and connection to acting choices within the overall story arc</li> <li>• Acting choices and lack of complete emotional connection of the actor creates some emotional response with the audience with some missed opportunities for connection</li> <li>• Overall, the actor performed the role on an average level, with high and low moments</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The role often showcased the diverse talents of the actor and produced elements of quality musical theater</li> <li>• Performance usually demonstrates a clear focus and connection to acting choices that support the overall story arc</li> <li>• Acting choices and emotional connection of the actor creates emotional response with the audience</li> <li>• Overall, the actor performed the role at a skilled level, often demonstrating effective and creative choices, risk-taking and strong character engagement</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The role showcased the diverse talents of the actor and produced elements of quality musical theater</li> <li>• Performance demonstrates a clear focus and connection to acting choices that support the overall story arc</li> <li>• Acting choices and emotional connection of the actor creates a meaningful and memorable emotional response with the audience</li> <li>• Overall, the actor performed the role at an advanced level, consistently demonstrating effective and creative choices, risk-taking, strong character engagement and high-quality theatrical performance</li> </ul>